Outgoing Chief's Minute:

He thanked everyone for coming to this year's Conclave. He has thoroughly enjoyed serving as chief, and he likes how close he has become to his friends from around the country. He thanked the COC, friends who came, all of the advisors, and the other section officers. He had a very fun year with the new program, and on the day of the COC, it was 7 years to the exact day from when he joined. He also thanked everyone for the amazing experience.

Budget Report:

We went over the budget, and discussed that the scholarship fund is going to start being built back up.

 - Section Chief: Brendan Olivera
 - Section Vice-Chief: Vaughn Golden
 - Section Secretary: Ryan Johnston

Closing Minutes:

- Conclave Advisor: Thanked everyone for their hard work at making this successful, and coming to their Conclave. He then gave a special thanks to Alex Bausman and Scott Smoot.
- Conclave Chair: He thanked the Section, and all of the Conclave staff. They did a good job in the shows and activities. Then he thanked a few specific people for their service, the entertainers, the trainers, the ranger, the cook crew, and thank you for the staff being flexible. Then he thanked everyone again for allowing them to host the 100th anniversary Conclave.
- Staff Advisor: She thanked 317 for a great Conclave and the past Section officers. She then congratulated the new officers, and centurion award winners. She said she looks forward to ArrowTour, NOAC, and next year's Conclave.
- Section Advisor: He had a fun weekend and he looks forward to NOAC. He wanted to recognize the past officers. Alex really set the bar high with all of his new programs. He thanked Connor and Austin for the training and hard work. From the charity auction, people still had payment that they needed to make. Bob first took him on as an associate advisor and now he is doing that next year too. The new associate advisor joining Brian is Scott Salvatore. Brian swore Scott in as the associate advisor for the upcoming year. He then thanked 317, as he felt at home and had to move his car 5 times. He looks forward to the new officer and next year's Conclave. July 18th is going to be the Section's Hersheypark, fellowship day. The trading post will be open, following the business meeting, and he encouraged people to buy the chenilles. They didn't have a scholarship fund this past year with NOAC, but the sales from the chenilles will go forward to the scholarship fund. He needed people to turn in their evaluations and punches. Then he recognized the 5 guests and encouraged everyone to come to ArrowTour. He congratulated the new officers, and he's glad to have three new officers that are willing to work.

- Section Chief: He thanked the Section for choosing him to be the new Section Chief, and 317 for a great Conclave. He's looking forward to serving, ArrowTour, NOAC, and next year's Conclave.

Adjournment:

- Song of the Order
 - We circled up and sang the song of our Order.
